

1. Why is there an interlude toward the end of the seal and trumpet judgments?
2. It is important as we study about God's coming judgment to remember why it is happening and what God wants us to know. Discuss the key truths we have learned so far.
3. Read chapter 10. Think about the three scrolls so far in Revelation. How are they connected?
4. What is your understanding of the little scroll and why do you think John was told to eat it?
5. What does it mean to internalize God's Word?
6. How is the Gospel both bad news and good news?
7. How are we ambassadors for Christ?
8. Read Revelation 11:1-14. How does the two witnesses speak of God's grace in the midst of the worst time to come?
9. Grace is defined "unmerited favor." How can we live that out in our daily lives? In our marriages?
10. Close with reading 11:15-19. End in prayer.

2nd INTERLUDE OF GRACE

CHAPTER 10 – THE SWEET AND SOUR SCROLL

1. This angel is like the angel in _____ who asked, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”
2. Standing on the land and sea speaks of God’s _____ of all the earth. (1 Corinthians 10:26)
3. The _____ scrolls in Revelation so far, the one John wrote on, the seven-sealed scroll, and this little scroll, all speak of the message of Revelation which is the completion of the mysteries the prophets foretold.
4. John eating the little scroll was _____ the message so that what he spoke and wrote was the very word of God.
5. This isn’t the first time someone was told to eat a scroll. _____ had a similar experience. (Ezekiel 2:8-3:4)
6. Like John, we must first internalize the message, allowing it to become a part of our _____.
7. The scroll is both sweet and bitter. The message of the Gospel is twofold:
  - A. _____ – Sin makes us subject to divine judgment.
  - B. _____ - Jesus Christ paid the complete penalty of sin for us and we are saved by grace through faith in Him.
8. Like John, we are _____ for Christ and His message of grace. (Ephesians 6:20)

DEFINITION OF GRACE: UNMERITED FAVOR

CHAPTER 11:1-14 - DYNAMIC DUO

1. John saw that there was a new temple and a remnant of Israel that is under persecution for 42 months or _____ years.
2. God will provide two witnesses, _____ men of God with amazing powers, who proclaim the Gospel during this worst time of the Tribulation.
3. The two olive trees and lampstands correspond to _____. This speaks of God empowering Zerubbabel to rebuild the temple after the captivity. When finished they shout, “Grace, grace!”
4. When their ministry is complete, they are killed by the _____, yet God brings them back to life!
5. Their return to heaven, accompanied by an earthquake, caused many to give _____ to God!

CHAPTER 11:15-19 – THE SEVENTH TRUMPET

1. At the seventh trumpet, the scene on earth is devastation, while the scene in heaven is one of _____ that Christ’s kingdom has finally come!

A FEW THOUGHTS...

1. Things are not _____.
2. This is a world _____.
3. We have a _____.
4. We are entrusted with God’s message of _____.
